"Eat The Wings... Feel The Rivalry!"

The Rivalry!

For over a decade the Crosstown Classic Rivalry between the Chicago Cubs & Chicago White Sox was at an even tie! This speaks volumes but some are unaware of the history behind this intense rivalry.

In 1900 Charles Comiskey brought his team, the "Saint Paul Saints", to Chicago. Immediately Comiskey was sued by Charles Murphy, the Cubs owner, in order to put some distance between where the 2 teams would play. Ultimately Comiskey was forced to play no further north than 35th St. The competition between the teams has always been intense and more than a game. The rivalry came down to the 1906 World Series where the Southsiders had their revenge & ultimate bragging rights!

Baseball fans nationwide loved the series so much that both teams decided to play each other for charity at least once per year & on Memorial Day the "Crosstown Classic" Series was born!

The "Crosstown Classic" was only a contest of bragging rights until '97 when the face of the series changed to interleague play. Adding to this legendary rivalry each team suffered alleged "curses" from the Chicago "Black Sox" of 1919 to the Northsiders "Billy Goat" curse of 1945 with neither team winning a World Series for over 100 years!

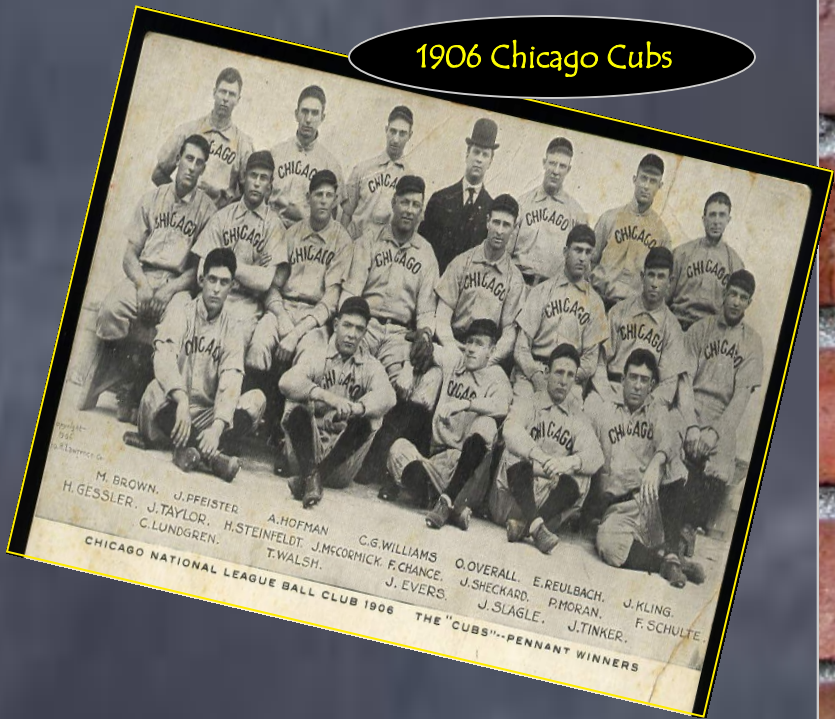

We are a City full of fans who are inherently divided. In our opinion, we have two great professional baseball teams in the World's Greatest City, and that my friends, is something to celebrate!

So, enjoy the fun atmosphere, award winning food, pints & most of all.....The Rivalry!
